515 LOCUST STREET.

Your Choice

Of any Raglan and Newmarket in the house. Some cost as high as $35.00.

First Choice

No matter what they are marked,

$10.00

Second Choice

Some in this lot cost us as high as $16.75. Take your pick for $7.50

EXTRA SPECIAL!

New Spring Walking Skirts.....

This Raglan $7.50.

in St. Louis to attend the meeting of the World's Fair delegation from the National Federation of Women's Clubs, the Christmas number of the Missouri Democrat, which was edited and published by the club women of Boonville, is attracting much attention. The issue is handsomely printed and filled with valuable reading pertaining to club work among women generally.

MISCELLANEOUS ENTERTAINMENTS. Mrs. H. Flebbe of the South Side celebrated her birthday Thursday afternoon.
Many guests were present, among them being:

Mesdames—
A. Steinbauer, H. Stewart,
G. Zeller, O. Zeller,
G. Felthop,
Misses—
Ringwald, Hagel,
Kratz, Flebbe.

Juangling,

The Misses Jones gave a dinner party at their home, No. 3615 Cote Brilliante avenue. Tuesday evening. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock, after which the guests adjourned to the decorated parlors, where they were entertained by vocal solos from the Misses Helen Jones and Ruth Wayland; also the Misses Marie McCusker and Vera Jones.

Among those present were:

Among those present were: Helen McCusker, Helen Jones,

Nona McCusker, Agnes Young, Roberta Jones, Marie McCusker, Barbara Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wolf, No. 2509 Goode venue were surprised Friday evening, January 10, by friends. Some piano selections by Fred Bronold, Miss Maggie Carroll, Miss Lillie Sullivan, and vocal solos by Miss Mae McGinness and Mr. Owen Blanchard were enjoyed.

Those present were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—
John Nold,
John Jackson,
Cornelius Mahoney,
Goldle Mahoney,
Lillie Sullivan,
Virgia Mahoney Virgie Mahoney, Maggie Carroll,

Enid Clifton, Carrie Sinnon, Hazel Wolf. Mae McGinness, Messicurs— Fred Bronold, Owen Blanchard,

Mrs. A. Bernd, No. 5559 Cabanne avenue, gave a musical on Tuesday afternoon in honor of two brides, Mrs. Mabel Handerson Rudolph and Mrs. Robert Baldwin. The programme follows:

Duo-Country Dance Nevin Mrs. Howard Watson and Mrs. Ed Pish, Boprano Solo-Rosary Nevin Mrs. Geo. I. Barnett.

Piano Solo-Selected, Mrs. Etta Fink.

Alto Solo-The Loreiev Lazzt Mrs. Mrs. Max Kaufman.

Piano Solo-Selected.

Mrs. Max Kaufman.

Piano Solo-Carmen Bizet

Seprano Solo-Carmen Bizet

Coprano Solo—Carmen Bizet

Miss Hanche Altheimer. Wagner

Miss Hertha Libby. Wagner

Miss Hertha Libby. Chaminade

(b) Scotch Hallad—Selected.

Mrs. Chas. Green.

Plano Solo—Cachoucha Mass Marie Nacto.

Alto Solo—La Separation

Mrs. Adolph Hernd.

Rossint

Ruo for Soprano and Alto—Selected.

Mrs. Herbert Morris and Mrs. Geo. Rudolph.

Plano Solo—Waltz

Mrs. Robt, Baldwin.

Mrs. C. W. Graf. No. 4123 Newstead avenue, entertained friends last Wednesday in honor of her birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, and the afternoon was spent in music and pinochie. Winners of the prizes were: Mr. H. Kahn, Miss Henninger, Mr. Charles Graf, Miss Kahn.

Mrs. Henry Franz, No. 2114 Penrose street, entertained friends with a "kaffee klatch" last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. G. Blumenthal, No. 2204 South Jefferson avenue, gave a surprise coffee Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Hattle Bernstein of Newport, Ark. The young lady was entertained in the evening with a box party and supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Blumenthal.

On Friday evening Miss Cherrye Maginof the value of a medicine is always found in the record of cures back of it. fifty years

Hostetter's Stomach

HAS BEEN CURING Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Beiching, Insomnia and Nervousness, and will not disappoint you now. Give it a fair trial and be convinced. Our Private Die Stamp is over the neck of the bottle.

nis, daughter of Mrs. Charles Maginnis of Webster Park, gave a dancing party in honor of Miss Mary Quarles. The young people danced and played games, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misees—

Misses—
Mary Quarles,
Florence Quarles,
Cynthain Pike,
Myrtle Salveter,
Constance Brooke,
Agnes Brooke,
Edith Baker,
Mable Early, Sallie Gruet.
Frances Dawson,
Buelah Nace,
Jessie Nace,
Margaret Hart,
Gertrude Coen,
May Yource of St. La
Genevieve Anderson.

On Thursday evening Miss Cannan gave a snowball party at her home, No. 3015 Bell avenue. Among those who attended were:

Messleurs and Mesdames—
Duering,
Hammon,
Milner,
Bauer,
Cook,
Rowland,
Breen,

Breen. Misses Miller, Dubols, Butler, Tresenriter. O'Brien, Dennison,
Mooney,
Ross,
Jones,
Gillen,
Kennedy,
Long. aten. durphy, Tierney, Kinney, Layat, Messieurs

Messieurs
Lopez,
Glannon,
Murphy,
Ross,
McQueeny,
Henderson,
Mooney,
Trevino,
Monaghan
Macdonald

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Voorhees entertained friends at their home, No. 6654 Cates avenue, on Tuesday evening. A stage was erected in the spacious pariors and a regular programme consisting of vocal and instrumental music and a minstrel performance was given. After the programme came a supper. Among those who participated in the programme were: Messrs. Burt McKinnie, Barnett Wylle, Bonnie Bell, Dan Fishel, Meyer, Foster, Forbes, Rose, Linde, Badaracca, Voorhees and Moore.

Among the guests were:

Among the guests were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—
Captain O. K. Duncan
Voorhees, Sam Ki
James Gillan, A. C. R
J. B. Smythe, Will Ra
J. Delaney, Tom Me J. Delaney, E. McLendon, W. C. Voorhees,

Duncan Brown,
Sam Kilpatrick,
A. C. Reneaux,
Will Rabe,
Tom McKenzie,
Ed Wright,
E. Skillern,
George Elders,

Mr. Charles Lane of Fairmount avenue entertained his friends with a stag cuchre Tuesday evening. At the conclusion of the game prizes were awarded and a supper served. Several young ladies being present, the evening closed with a dance.

Among those present were:

M:secoNeilie Harrigan, George Kipp,
Allice Turner, Grace Albright George Kipp, Grace Albright. Mabel Ware. Lee Parks, Frank Platt, Ernest Spencer. Alice Turne

Dorothy Stewart, Messieurs James Durham, Haley Peeper, Walter Carpenter,

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Carroll entertained South Side friends with a supper Friday evening at their residence, No. 3731 Laclede avenue. The decorations were white chrysanthemums and palms. Mrs. Carroll wore white satin and pink, the decollete bodice trimmed in clusters of pink sweet peas. Those present were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—
Charles C. Kolbe, J. M. Barton.
Frank Thompson,
Misses—
Louise Meyer, Helene Carroll.
Mesdames—

Will S. Ricketts, Cora Ramsey. MessieursThomas Whitelaw, Robert Ramsey, Cape Girardeau, McWilliam M. Barton,
Arthur Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Givens have issued invitations for a euchre at their home in Clemens avenue, Friday evening, January 24, in honor of Mrs. E. F. Swinney of Kansas City and other visiting guests from that city. As this is the first entertaining Mrs. Givens has done since moving into her new home, the party will be in the nature of a house warming.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kunze. No. 1221 Lami street, were surprised by a few of their friends last Saturday night. Music and dancing were the features of the evening and at midnight a repast was served.

Those present were:

Messames and Messieurs—
J. Hickman.

Missea.

L. Gausman.

Misses—
Iorence Fitzpatrick, Viola Tice,
Iizabeth Buealer, Birdle Wackman,
Iizabeth Hickman, Lizzle Engl.
Ida Fischer,
Ida

bert Fischer. Albert Fischer, Ben Sweeney, Edward Rife, George Diepenbrock John Engl. Charles Hickman, Harry Steinbrader, Sterling Bayless, Frank Fiotron, Charles Sutten.

A euchre party was given last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jasarke, No. 4546 Labadle avenue. Among the guests

Messieurs and Mesdames—
Messieurs and Mesdames—
Joe Vierling,
Wich, F. Horaek
Hy. Mohrhaus,
J. Henekes,
Leo Baldes. Clara Rieger, K. Wich, L. Wich, A. Wich.

Mrs. Paul Brown has sent out cards for Friday afternoon, January 31.

party at the Union Club on Monday after-noon, January 20.

Miss Lena Henninger entertained friends last Thursday in honor of her birthday. She was the recipient of many presents. Among the guests were:

Mesdames—
W. Kronmueller, C. C. Perry,
C. W. Graf, Charles Rohnbach,
P. F. Scritslow,
Missee—

L. Kontowsky, L. Kaiser, R. Blank,

K. Kaiser, C. Sauerbrunn, L. Kaiser, M. Rohnbach.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Griesedleck of Russell avenue gave a dance to forty of their married friends last evening. All guests were asked to come in fancy costume, and were received by the host and hostess, who appeared in dress of Swiss peasants. There were many amusing as well as artistic effects obtained in the guests' sartorial efforts, which served to make the evening exceedingly jolly.

Daneing in the handsome third-floor ballroom, a hot supper at midnight, and many features of fun contributed to the success of the affair. The entire house was trimmed with a great profusion of pink carnations and Southern smilax.

Among the dancers were:

Messieura and Mesdames—
Frank Everts, Frank Nulsen,
Joseph Griesedieck, Tony Nulsen,
Robert Herold,
Edward Curby, Hermann Steinwender, Sr.,
der, Jr. W Saver.

Edward Curby, Hermann Steinwender, Jr., Henry Griesedieck, Theodore Herold,

Peter Brush, Jr., H. Jentsch. C. Seaman, Misses— Anna Witteman, Ella Ouhrabka, Gertle Benish, Annie Brush, Ameliä Bronnen-kamp, Marie Fohrell, Pearl Schumacher, Messieurs—

William Brush, Edward Bronnen-

kamp, A. Scheermeier, George Hoffman, Alex. Reifies,

Lens Fohrell, Sophie Fohrell, Adel Benish, Irene Oswald, Florence Benish, Lulu Benish, Ella Benish,

Mrs. P. B. Little gave a reception on Tuesday afternoon that was one of the prettiest functions of the season. The house was decorated with smilax and American beauties, Mrs. Little was assisted in receiving by Mmes, Charles Green, Charles Clark, Paul Bakewell, John McNair, James Garneau, Frank Little and the Misses Fowler, Green, Gilman and Fletcher.

Miss Crouch, No. 4001 Delmar boulevard, gave a inneheon to Mrs. Edwin T. Nugent on Friday afternoon. The decorations were American beauties. Some of the guests present were: Mesdames -Herman Luyties,

Charles Drummond, Amedee Reyburn,
Misses-Spencer, Cook, Rena Dula

Georgia Walker. Theodore Herold, Stockstrom.

Theodore Herold, Stockstrom.

Miss Margaret A. Kelly entertained a few of her friends on Friday evening at her home, No. 407 Page boulevard, assisted by Mrs. E. Kelly and Mrs. C. Watkins.

Miss Amelia Stein of Botanical avenue entertained friends at euchre last week. Cards were played from 2 o'clock until 5, after which the scores were counted and prizes awarded to the Misses Jeanette Obermeyer, Selma Baron, Paula Schubach

Who will be graduated from the St. Louis High School (Normal course) next Wednesday evening. Miss Levy is an elocutionist of considerable ability, and recited at he graduating exercises of the High School Girls' Literary Society last Friday evening. At the High School commencement she will read an essay on "The Development of the English Language."

Euchre was played until 11 o'clock, when and Stella Goldstein. At 6 o'clock luncheon a dainty supper was served. During the evening Miss Flora Welss entertained the party with several selections in elocution, which were specially well rendered. Music, singing and dancing were indulged in, and at the parting of the guests the Twentieth Century Mandolin Club played "Home, Sweet Home." Among those present were:

Misses—
Margaret A. Kelly, Gertrude Heffernon, Mayme Weiss.

Lilly Kelly.

Mendolin Club Played "Home, Flora Wolgemuth, Jeanette Obermeyer. Henrietta Bamberger, Belma Baron.

Margaret A. Kelly, Gertrude Heffernon, Mayme Weiss, Lilly Kelly, Flora Weiss, Clara Konzelman, May Montague, John Boyle, J. E. King, Joe Kelly, J. B. Winetroub, Doctor Paul R. Konzelman, Mesdames— C. Watkins.

Mr. Hetzel of the Hetzel Importing Com-pany is in New York, receiving their direct importations.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mallow, No. 4731
Kenneriy avenue, entertained friends list
Saturday evening with a cuchre. Cards were played until 19:39. The prizes were awarded to Miss Mary Shepack, Mrs. Guitteau, Mrs. T. H. Rigg, Mr. William Jones, Mr. W. H. Kaye and Mr. G. I. Moore, During the evening several vocal and piano selections were rendered by Messrs, F. Debro and C. Henley, after which luncheon was served.
Among those present were:
Messleurs and MesdamesW. H. Kaye.
C. F. Roberts,
T. H. Rigg.
M. G. Byron,
P. D. Hill.
Mesdames-

Fanny Guitteau. Mae Melton, Mary Shepack, Gertrude Howard. Messieurs-F. Debro, C. Henley, G. I. Moore,

A pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mr. Frank T. Benish, No. 3230 California gvenue, the occasion being their afteenth wedding anniversary. The guests were entertained by plano selections from Miss Anna Witteman, followed by dancing

lections from Miss Anna
lowed by dancing.
Among those present were:
Messicurs and Mesdames—
Messicurs and Mesdames—
Adam Iswald.
A. Fohrell,
Thomas C. Benish, H. Lehman,
Louis Kunz, H. Schumacher,

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Armstrong, No. 5718 Maple avenue, celebrated their tin wedding on Tuesday evening. Cards were the feature of the evening.

Miss Alice L. King of No. 5109 Ridge avenue celebrated her tenth birthday Thursday, January 9, by entertaining her little school friends.

A reception was given at the home of Mrs. A. Mathes, No. 2808 Thomas street, Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Jule Nussbaum of Paris, III., who is visiting relatives. Dancing was indulged in to a late hour, and a supper. Among those present were:

Misses—
Marie Connor, Souhie Meyer, Hilda Schwartz, Louise Meyer, Ester Mauge, Birdie Lowis, Fannie Wolfe, Helen Lowis, Stella Summerfield, Jessie Lowis, Rubie Schwartz, Jessie Mathes, Mabel Heyman, Julie Walgomuth, Julie Harris, Messieurs—
Messieu

Messleurs— Claude Schlusinger, Manny Erman, Arthur Erman, Will Steinburg, Alvin Moss, Roswell Messing, Julius Nussbaum, Earl Jacobs,

I Goldberg I Gleuck. Sam Soloman, Mose Harris Roy Sherman, Ed Freede, Martin Trapp. Joe Lowenstein.

Mrs. Will Dye. No. 1912 Goode avenue, celebrated her birthday by giving a "Kaffee Klatch" in the afternoon and a cuchre in the evening. Among the many present

Messieurs and Mesc John Wolf, John Nold, John Crocker, John Sharkey, Corneltus Backer, Charles Backer, Charles Barlow,
M. Gunn,
Misses—
Lydie Wehmeyer,
Messieurs—
Will Poser,

Burt Levy, Louis Linton,

Goldle Mahoney.

AGED ENGINEER CELEBRATES FORTY-EIGHTH ANNIVESARY

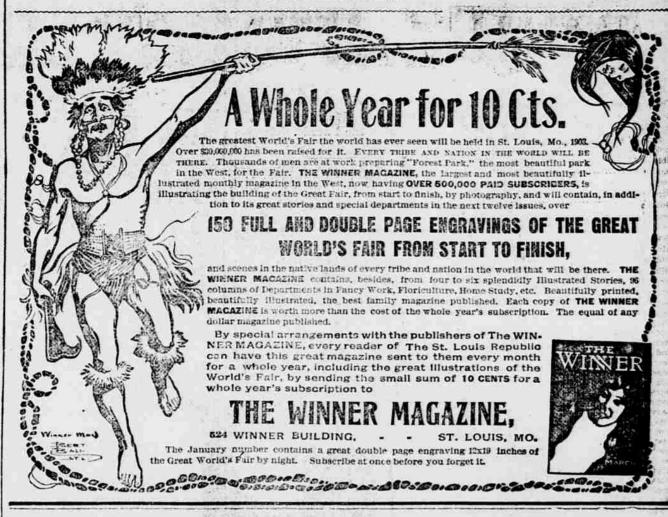

MR. AND MRS. J. L. CARVER,
Who celebrated the forty-eighth anniversary of their wedding yesterday.

J. L. Carver, 75 years old, one of the in this city, was married here, and oldest living Mississippi River steamboat | made his home here all his long life. engineers, celebrated the forty-eighth anniversary of his wedding yesterday at his home, No. 728 Bayard avenue. He was born I neir advanced years. They received

Mrs. Carver is 66 years old, and both she

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

dren and grandchildren yesterday.

In the days when river traffic was the chief business of St. Louis Carver was chief engineer on several of the boats which were then the finest and fastest in the river service. He commanded in the engine-room of the steamer Lucky State when that boat made a record-breaking run from this city to St. Paul. Subsequently he was chief engineer of the packet Red Wing and of the City of Richmond.

Four children and thirteen grandchildren are living. Two of the former are E. S. Carver and W. H. Carver, both of whom are engineers. The two others, Mrs. James McConnell and Mrs. Charles S. Helile, are living in St. Louis.

Mrs. Carver was born in Bristol, Eng. land, and came to this city when 14 years old. Her husband has always been a stanch Democrat, and has been a reader of The Republic for half a century.

ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD A BANK.

Kansas City Cashier Causes Arrest of Three Men. Kansos City, Mo., Jan. 18.-An attempt to defraud the National Bank of Commerce through its stock yards branch in this city out of $6,560, by the use of forged drafts, has been discovered here.

has been discovered here.

G. R. Thompson, who presented the drafts for payment; W. J. Laughlin, to whom the drafts were made payable, and another man whose name is not known, have been arrested on information filed by Charles Moore, assistant cashler of the bank.

The drafts were what are known as cashier's drafts, which are not used as negotiable paper by depositors. They were written upon the paper of the Logan County Bank at Sterling, Colo., and were three in number, one for $2.000 one for $2.000 and the third for $1.500. All were signed "C. E. Doherty." The Sterling bank in reply to a telegram said the drafts were bogus.

Thompson was arrested here yesterday afternoon and Laughlin and the third man were taken at Webb City. Mo., this afternoon. Thompson's arrest being kept quiet until the police had made sure of the others. Thompson, who is still in custody, was formerly keeper of a pool room at Cherryvale, Kan.

Chief Hayes and Superintendent Tillotson of the Pinkerton Agency assert that Laughlin has been concerned in the fake foot racing scheme at Webb City, by which lin has been concerned in the fake for facing scheme at Webb City, by while sporting men and others have been beate out of $200,000 in the past six months.

ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION Business Men's League Will Also Dine Next Tuesday Evening.

It is expected that 200 guests will be present at the annual meeting and dinner of the Business Men's League at the Mercantile Club next Tuesday evening, Jan-of the Business Men's League at the Mercantile Club next Tuesday evening, January 2!.

The Reverend Doctor Cornelius H. Patton will prenounce the invocation. Following the dinner C. P. Walbridge, president, will deliver an address. The election of president, five vice presidents and other twenty-four members of Executive Committee will be next in order. This will be followed by reports from the treasurer. Walker Hill; E. Devoy, chairman of the Legislation Committee; Messrs. Bryan and Christie, counsel; Hy. F. Langenberg, chairman of the Board of Managers. St. Louis Traffic Bureau, which is maintained jointly by the Business Men's League and the Merchants Exchange; E. S. Tompkins, traffic commissioner; Nathan Frank, chairman of the Conventions and Entertaining Committee, and W. K. Kavanaugh, chairman River Improvement Committee. J. G. Gilmore of the Postal Committee will read the report of that committee, in the absence of George D. Markham, chairman. H. M. Blossota, chairman of the Insurance Committee; J. J. Wertheimer, chairman of the Programme Committee, and W. J. Kinsella, chairman of the Membership Committee, in the sendent of the Programme Committee, and W. J. Kinsella, chairman of the Membership Committee, in the sendent of the Programme Committee, and W. J. Kinsella, chairman of the Membership Committee, and it is expected that a large number of new members will be elected.

MANY BURNED IN THE DEBRIS. Fatal Explosion of the Boiler in Spanish Spinning Mill.

Barcelona, Jan 18 .- The boiler of a spin ning mill near Mauresa exploded to-day and wrecked the building. A large number of working people were buried in the debris,

ST. LOUIS COUNTY PARAGRAPHS.

Robert T. Richey and James J. Reager were arrested in Maplewood yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shank on January II. They will be given a trial before Justice Hansman next Saturday. Mrs. Ignis Glaser of Springfield, who came to Clayton Thursday to visit Mrs. Robert Shackelford, received a telegram Friday morning announcing the death of her sister, Miss Tinsley, of Louisiana, Mo. She departed immediately to attend the funeral.

Tolly Dougherty was arrested in Wellston yesterday by Constable Tinmermann on a charge of assaulting Miss Josie Gerling at a masquerade ball in Roth's Hall on the evening of January II. According to Miss Gerling's sworn statement Dougherty accused her of mistreating him and struck her in the jaw. He was released on a $200 bond and will be tried before Justice John T. Rapp next Friday afternoon.

James Huggins, the 14-year-old boy who shot and killed Willie Hagemeyer at Dupont Park about three months ago, was arrested yesterday on a Grand Jury indictment, charging murder in the first degree. Huggins shot Hagemeyer, who was a playmate, with a rife and declares it was done accidentally.

Marriage licenses were issued in Clayton yesterday to George Winter of No. 236 Menard street and Mary Arndt of No. 206 Menard street, Harry K. Hutchi-son of Chicago and Lillie S. Ruff of St. Louis, John Ackerman of Angola, Ind., and Mollie Rank of No. 238 Thomas street and Hans W. E. Clatte of Herman and Ettel Avery of Webster Groves.

The St. Louis County Democrat made its initial appearance in Clayton yester-day. The paper is owned and edited by J. T. Appler, who was connected with The Republic for a number of years. The pa-

MR, AND MRS, HENRY BRUER CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Pioneer Residents of North St. Louis Observe the Fiftieth Anniversary of Their Wedded Life With Second Ceremony and Family Reunion-Mr. Bruer Is Eighty and His Wife Seventy Years Old.

Who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last night at their home, No. 1314 made a family reunion at which, besides the children and grandchildren, more than for-do them homage. Mr. Bruer celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary last month, while Mrs. Bruer is in her seventy-first year. Both are hale and hearty, and at the golden wedding joined in the dancing with the young

Mr. Eruer is a ploneer resident of St. Louis. He settled here in 1849, after leaving Germany to seek his fortune in the 1314 Benton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bruer celebrated the | New World. After a stay of two years hey fiftieth year of their wedded life last night | met Mrs. Bruer, then Miss Sophia Harwith a golden wedding at their home, No. | nold. They were married and established 1314 Benton street. The event was also their home at No. 1314 Benton street, where they have lived half a century. Of the large family which has sprung up about ty relatives of the aged couple gathered to them more than wascore children and grandchildren are residents of St. Louis. Their surviving sons and daughters, all of whom were present with their familles. are: Henry H. Bruer of No. 1458 Stewarts place; Albert H. Bruer of No. 1901 Hebert street; Robert Bruer of No. 2518 University street; Charles D. Bruer of No. 2709 Armania street; George Bruer of No. 2709 Armania street; Mrs. Paul Kahmann of No. 4128 Prai-rie avenue, and Mrs. Daniel Hoffman of No.

Daughters of Mrs. F. L. Glover of No. 4514 North Nineteenth street. Mrs. F. L. Glover gave a doll party Friday after school hours in honor of her three daughters. Thirty-five little folks, with their dolls, formed at Bryan Hill School, headed by Miss Mollie Nugent and her doll, and marched across Grand avenue to Mrs. Glover's. There luncheon was served and a merry evening spent. Among the teachers who assisted were Miss M. Nugent, Miss Baker, Miss Donneberg, Miss Ryan, Miss Barrett, Miss B. Cohen and Miss P. Cohen.

per will be Democratic in politics. The Clayton Argus, formerly a Democratic pa-per, has been converted into an independ-dent sheet by its new proprietor, and Mr. Appler started the Democrat to fill the Greek Letter Convention Plan. Chicago, Ill., Jan. 18 .- Twenty-four Greek letter fraternities were represented to-day at a meeting of the committee of the International Olympian Games Association The following resolutions were adopted: "Resolved. That we, the members of the various Greek letter fraternities here present, pledge ourselves to present to the authorities of our respective fraternities, through the proper channels, the desirability of holding the convention of 190 at Chicago, while the Olympian games are in progress during the month of October of the that year.

"Resolved, That we, the members of the various Greek fraternities here present advise the Executive Committee of their Olympian games of 1904 to invite each of the said fraternities to recommend for approval two of its members to represent it and to act as members of a committee of the Olympian games on fraternity affaire and matters of mutual interest pertaining to the games."

Texas Bankers Will Visit Cuba,

Austin, Tex., Jan. 18.—The Executive Committee of the Texas Bankers' Association met this morning in the Driskell Hote and decided to hold the annual meeting in Galveston, March 12 1903. Following this meeting it was decided to take a trice Cuba.